

Yorkshire Trike Tours

YTT33 Lunch at the Tan Hill

What a perfect way to see the beautiful Yorkshire Dales . Allowing yourselves to be chauffeur driven on our amazing three seater Boom Mustang motor trike, an impressive and thrilling machine to behold.

Triking is like no other experience, it has the freedom and exhilaration of a motorbike along with the safety and comfort of an open top sports car. When you are cruising the Dales your made to feel part of the environment as your not cocooned in a bubble as you are in a car.

Come join us for the most exciting and memorable day of adventure. See, feel and experience the Yorkshire Dales like you've never done before.

- Price: 399.00
- Duration: 4 hours
- Distance: 70 miles

Start: White Bear Hotel Masham HG4 4EN

Route: Masham, Thornton Watlass, Scotton, Ellerton Abbey, Reeth, Whaw, Long Causeway, Tan Hill Inn, West Stonesdale, Keld, Thwaite, Angram, Buttertubs Pass, Hawes, Bainbridge, Aysgarth, West Witton, Middleham, East Witton, Jervaulx Abbey before finishing back to Masham

Review: On a lonely hill high in the Yorkshire Dales, stands a unique and historic Inn dating back to the 17th century with its exposed beams, stone-flagged floor and welcoming fire. The World Famous Tan Hill Inn is Britain's highest public house at 1,732 feet (528m) above sea level. Situated in Swaledale, just near Keld, the highest Inn in Great Britain is a warm meeting place and know Internationally.

www.yorkshiretriketours.co.uk